Dear Members of the Board,

I am writing to formally announce my retirement from my position as District Coordinator for the Auglaize County Solid Waste Management District. My last day at the facility will be September 24, 2025.

After much thought, I have decided that it is time for me to step down and begin a new chapter in my life. I am deeply grateful for the opportunity to have served in this role and for the rewarding experiences I've had working with such a dedicated and talented team.

I will do my best to ensure a smooth transition and assist in any way I can to help with the process. It has been a pleasure contributing to the mission of the district, and I will always cherish the work we've done together.

Thank you for your support over the years.

Sincerely,
s/Scott Cisco
